1. In late February 1954, the barracks installation in Jena-Loebstedt (8222) quartered about 1,200 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulettes with artillery, tank or motor transport insignia. A small percentage of the troops wore black-bordered red epaulettes, black-bordered black epaulettes and blue-bordered black epaulettes with engineer and signal insignia. the soldiers wearing black-bordered black and blue-bordered black epaulettes belonged to units stationed in the Polizei Kaserne (8223) and in installation in Jena Forst (8225). The soldiers concerned were said to have been at the installation for training purposes. A headquarters was allegedly also stationed in the Loebstedt installation. Observed were several high-ranking officers, 2 generals, 3 colonels and 3 lieutenant colonels, including Lieutenant Colonel Lezubchenkov (Snu). On 20 February 1954, 5 SU-85s left the installation and returned after a short time.
